There's something special about this time of year! The smell of freshly sharpened pencils, new notebooks, and crayons still in their perfect little rows. It can only mean one thing: it's back to school time!

On behalf of everyone at Franklin County Consolidated Housing Authority, I want to wish all the amazing kids in our housing community a fun, safe, and successful school year.

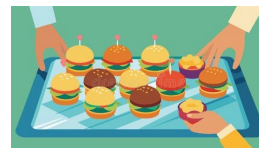

Whether you're learning your ABCs or solving big math problems, we believe in you and we're cheering you on every step of the way. So pack those backpacks, tie those shoes, and don't forget to smile on your first day! We're so proud of you already!

Because the teacher said it was a piece of cake.

Why did the many problems.*

What do you
